

GREAT DEMONSTRATION BREAKS OUT WHEN WILSON'S NAME IS MENTIONED IN KEYNOTE SPEECH

Democratic Convention is Called to Order This Afternoon; New Jersey Leads Parade Through the Aisles of the Coliseum; 5,000 Women Line Streets and Watch Delegates on Way to Hall; Democratic Platform Will Contain Strong Bid for Progressive Support.

PETERSON SAYS THAT EVERYTHING HARMONIOUS

(Special to East Oregonian.)
ST. LOUIS, June 14.—Oregon delegation harmonious; great enthusiasm manifest; Bryan solid for Wilson; many progressives loud in their praise for Wilson and denounce standpaters for their action at Chicago. Regard Hughes the same as Taft. Penrose, Crane and Smoot. Predict Wilson's election. Safe weather. Fine crowd.
WILL M. PETERSON.

COLISEUM, St. Louis, June 14.—With a program cut and dried, the democratic convention was called to order at 12:30 this afternoon. The hall was hot and stuffy. The delegates mopped their faces and wiped their brows.

McCormack introduced Glynn who began his keynote speech at 1 o'clock, after the temporary officers were ratified. Seventeen minutes later, when Wilson's name was mentioned, a violent demonstration began. New Jersey started a parade through the aisles. Illinois following.

ST. LOUIS, June 14.—Five thousand women lined the street for more than a mile and stared quietly at the democratic delegates enroute to the Coliseum. All were clad in white and yellow. They did not attempt to argue or button-hole the delegates. They did not talk but just stared. It undoubtedly was the most unique suffrage demonstration ever staged.

The democratic platform will contain a strong direct bid for the progressive support. The younger democrats gathered today, determined to invite the moose into the party. Barker was dubious concerning the wisdom of openly inviting the progressives.

It was nearly eleven o'clock this morning before workmen put the finishing touches on the decorations and standards separating the delegations. The delegates then began arriving. The audience began singing. The arriving delegates confessed that the gaze of the suffragettes outside simply punctured them. One stood every two feet. Delegates going to the Coliseum were forced either to walk or ride past. Feminine eyes looked at them reproachfully, pleadingly, defiantly. It was apparent that the stunt was effective from the impression it made. Colonel Robert Ewing was the first to set the style by peeling off his coat and rolling up his sleeves. Others followed suit. The entrance of Ollie Evans evoked the first applause. Bryan's entrance created more applause. He took a seat among the newspapermen.

Only slight applause greeted the introduction of Glynn. The heat is taking the pep from the audience.

The first enthusiasm was manifested when Glynn defended Wilson's Americanism and characterized the republicans as "peppercorn politicians." A summer rain started outside but did not reduce the heat.
